

Day 6 - Review Questions and Answers (Agile, Scrum, Git)

1. Agile is a set of values and _____, not a specific process.

Answer: principles

2. The Agile Manifesto values working software over comprehensive _____.

Answer: documentation

3. Scrum is a concrete _____ that puts Agile values into practice.

Answer: framework

4. The Scrum role responsible for owning and ordering the product backlog by value is the _____.

Answer: Product Owner

5. The _____ owns the Scrum process, removes blockers, and helps protect the team from disruption.

Answer: Scrum Master

6. The three core Scrum artefacts are the Product Backlog, Sprint Backlog, and _____.

Answer: Increment

7. INVEST stands for Independent, Negotiable, Valuable, Estimable, Small, and _____.

Answer: Testable

8. A Daily Standup should normally take less than _____ minutes.

Answer: 15

9. During a standup, blockers should be identified but generally _____ after the standup with the necessary people.

Answer: solved

10. Sprint Planning considers three main ingredients: capacity, story pointing, and the Sprint _____.

Answer: goal

11. Story points provide _____ sizing rather than estimating work in hours.

Answer: relative

12. In Planning Poker, everyone reveals their estimate at the _____ time to avoid anchoring.

Answer: same

13. A Sprint Review focuses on inspecting the product _____.

Answer: increment

14. A Sprint Retrospective focuses on the team's _____ rather than the product.

Answer: process

15. A Pull Request is a request to _____ one branch into another.

Answer: merge

16. A good Pull Request description explains what changed, why it changed, and how a reviewer can _____ it.

Answer: verify

17. Branch protection can require at least one approving _____ before a change can be merged.

Answer: review

18. Branch protection can require status checks, such as a _____ build, to pass before merging.

Answer: Jenkins

19. Conventional Commits use the format type: short _____.

Answer: description

20. Secrets, credentials, .env files, and API keys should never be included in a Git _____.

Answer: commit